

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

If you are a California resident, in addition to the Privacy Policy found here (<https://www.free2move.com/car-sharing-washington/privacy-policy-free2move-washington.pdf>), review the Additional Information for California Residents section below for important information about the categories of personal information we collect and disclose, as well as your rights under California privacy laws, including your right to submit a Do Not Sell My Info request (i.e., to opt of the sale of your personal information by us).

1. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION FOR CALIFORNIA RESIDENTS

In this section, we provide additional information to California residents about how we handle their personal information, as required under California privacy laws including the California Consumer Privacy Act (“CCPA”). This section does not address or apply to our handling of publicly available information lawfully made available by state or federal government records or other personal information that is exempt under the CCPA.

A. Categories of Personal Information About California Residents

In this section we describe, generally, how we have collected and disclosed personal information about consumers in the prior 12 months (from the Last Updated date above).

Categories of Personal Information Collected and Disclosed. While our collection, use, and disclosure of personal information varies based upon our relationship and interactions with consumers, the table below identifies the categories of personal information (as defined by the CCPA) we have collected about consumers, as well as how we may disclose such information for a business purpose. For more information about the business and commercial purposes for which we collect, use and disclose personal information, please see the Use of Personal Information and the Disclosure of Personal Information sections see the relevant sections here: <https://www.free2move.com/car-sharing-washington/privacy-policy-free2move-washington.pdf>.

Do We “Sell” Personal Information? Under the CCPA, a “sale” is defined very broadly to include sharing, disclosing or making available personal information to a third-party in exchange for monetary compensation or other benefits or value. We may share, disclose or make available personal information as follows: Usage Data and Identifiers to third-party advertising networks and analytics providers; Usage Data, Identifiers and Commercial Data about the use of the connected services to our business partners; and Customer Records, Commercial Information and Inferences to dealers and marketing partners so that they may use it to market and sell our services.

Sources of Personal Information. As further described in the Information We Collect above, we may collect personal information from the following sources:

- directly from the individual
- advertising networks
- data analytics providers
- social networks
- internet service providers
- operating systems and platforms
- government entities
- data brokers/aggregators
- business and enterprise customers (e.g. fleet services)
- dealers
- platform providers
- telecom providers

B. California Residents’ Rights

CCPA Rights. In general, California residents have the following rights with respect to their personal information:

- Do-not-sell (opt-out): to opt-out of our sale of their personal information. While we may “sell” personal information as defined by the CCPA, we do not sell personal information about California consumers who we know are younger than 16 years old. California residents may opt out of sales of their personal information by us as set forth below.
- Right of deletion: to request deletion of their personal information that we have collected about them and to have such personal information deleted (without charge), subject to certain exceptions.

- Right to know: with respect to the personal information we have collected about them in the prior 12 months, to require that we disclose the following to them (up to twice per year and subject to certain exemptions):
 - categories of personal information collected;
 - categories of sources of personal information;
 - categories of personal information about them we have disclosed for a business purpose or sold;
 - categories of third parties to whom we have sold or disclosed for a business purpose their personal information;
 - the business or commercial purposes for collecting or selling personal information; and
 - a copy of the specific pieces of personal information we have collected about them.

- Right to non-discrimination: the right not to be subject to discriminatory treatment for exercising their rights under the CCPA.

Submitting CCPA Requests. California residents may submit CCPA requests to opt out of sales, requests to know (access), and requests to delete their personal information through one of the following methods:

- Online here at codus@free2move.com
- By phone at +1 888-625-2549

In addition, you may opt out of third-party tags and cookies on our Websites using our cookie preference manager, which you can access by clicking the “Cookie Settings” link in the footer of our Websites.

When you submit a request to know or a request to delete, we will take steps to verify your request by matching the information provided by you with the information we have in our records. You must complete all required fields on our webform or otherwise provide us with this information via the above toll-free number. In some cases, we may request additional information in order to verify your request or where necessary to process your request. If we are unable to adequately verify a request, we will notify the requestor. Authorized agents may also submit requests on behalf of consumers using the online form above; authorized agents will be required to provide proof of their authorization and we may also require that the relevant consumer directly verify their identity and the authority of the authorized agent.

Your Privacy Rights Under California Shine the Light Law. Under California’s “Shine the Light” law (Cal. Civ. Code § 1798.83), California residents who provide us certain personal information are entitled to request and obtain from us, free of charge, information about the personal information (if any) we have shared with third parties for their own direct marketing use. Such requests may be made once per calendar year for information about any relevant third-party sharing in the prior calendar year. To submit a “Shine the Light” request, email us at codus@free2move.com and include in your request a current California address and your attestation that you are a California resident.
