

Privacy and Data Protection Policy

Free2Move SAS places a particular importance on personal data protection.

Free2Move is committed to ensuring that your personal information is protected and never misused. To improve technology and customer experience, we collect information through the Free2Move website and app, and our other connected tools. We carefully protect this information and handle it with discretion.

The main reason why we collect your personal data is to provide and improve services, products and customer experience that you, and all of our customers, expect from us.

This Privacy Policy describes how your personal data is processed by Free2Move SAS as data controller.

This Privacy Policy governs the manner in which Free2Move SAS processes the personal data of its Users as defined below and in accordance with the amended French law n°78-17 of 6 January 1978 "Informatique et Libertés" (Information Technology and Freedom) and the European General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 (hereinafter "GDPR"), and any National Transposition Measures. Together, these are called "Applicable Regulations".

✔ Managing Requests to Exercise Information Technology Rights and Freedoms

Read more

Data processing details

This data processing covers all the operations necessary to follow up requests to exercise information technology rights and freedoms sent to Free2Move (classification of the request, investigations, carrying out specific technical operations, etc.).

Legal basis

Our legal obligation arising from Articles 15 and following of the GDPR and Articles 48 and following of the French Data Protection Act.

Details of the personal data collected

When you exercise your information technology rights and freedoms, Free2Move collects the personal data necessary to respond to your request. This is your identification and contact data, details of your request to exercise your information technology rights and freedoms and, if necessary, a copy of an identity document or equivalent proving your identity.

Duration of retention of personal data

Personal data is kept for the calendar year in which the request was received and for the next five (5) years from the date it was received.

In the event that you exercise the right to object, personal data is kept for six (6) years from the receipt of the request, in accordance with the applicable limitation periods.

Identity documents that may be sent to Free2Move are:

- Deleted immediately in the event that the Data Protection Officer (hereinafter referred to as "DPO") is not competent to deal with the request, unless it is necessary for the request to be forwarded to the relevant department, or if the request correctly addressed to the DPO does not require the submission of an identity document;
- Deleted one (1) year after receipt of the request in other cases.

Recipients of personal data

The DPO and Free2Move staff as well as Free2Move's service providers whose contribution is requested by the DPO. Your personal information is not shared, exchanged, sold or communicated to any other person. The recipients of your personal data may vary depending on the service used

3 Free2Move Services

Free2Move only collects the personal data necessary for the explicit purposes of each service in its capacity as data controller.
